

Indicative Ballot: 2 Days to Go!

Sue Bonser
School's Convenor

Ballot papers are coming in thick and fast, the closing date is Wednesday 16 March so if you haven't used your vote... Make sure you do!

Steward's Meeting

We have a Steward's Meeting on Thursday 24 March at 2pm in our new office. Please do your best to attend.

If your school does not have a UNISON steward then why not put yourself forward? You would have the support of our local team and make a real difference to your colleagues. Training is comprehensive and time off is guaranteed under local agreement. Contact Sue Bonser for more information.

Details of Additional Hours

We are building a picture of offers but some schools haven't let us know yet. Please send us any information you have as soon as possible.

We will be encouraging members to seek clarification of exact hours to be worked post implementation (from 6 June onwards), if your contract says 18 hours, you would only work 18 hours. Any hours you do above this should be paid or given back to you (time off in lieu). Working over and above your contracted hours is giving away your labour for free. If this becomes an issue please contact the branch for assistance.

Glenys Turner Memorial Fun Walk

On Sunday 15 May 2016 UNISON East Midlands have organised a family day out in aid of UNISON Welfare. There is a free bus going from Derby. Check the website or facebook for more details (links below).

Fun and fresh air for all the family!

Restructures & Other

On top of the on going Issues Pay & Reward issue, our team is working with members in a number of schools currently going through restructures. If anything like this is happening at your school then please contact us and we will support you. You have the right to have your union take an active role in any changes being proposed.

Our Affiliated Political Fund takes UNISON members' views directly into the Labour Party, working to promote UNISON policies.
