

On Saturday February 18th 2017 between 12 — 3.30 pm UNISON Labour Link in the East Midlands is inviting all members to an afternoon of Political Activism.

DON'T SIT ON THE SIDELINES Be the Change in 2017

As we face the County Council Elections on May 4th 2017, UNISON members voices are vital in building a campaign which can win for Labour in the County Elections and the next General Election.

Speakers will include Lilian Greenwood MP, Cllr Alan Rhodes Labour Leader of Nottinghamshire County Council & representation from Derby County Council Labour Group. There will be workshops, political debate and Lunch !

To book a place and to register for lunch e mail ; c.symes@unison.co.uk All attendees must be a UNISON APF member. For more information call Cathy on 0115 847 5482